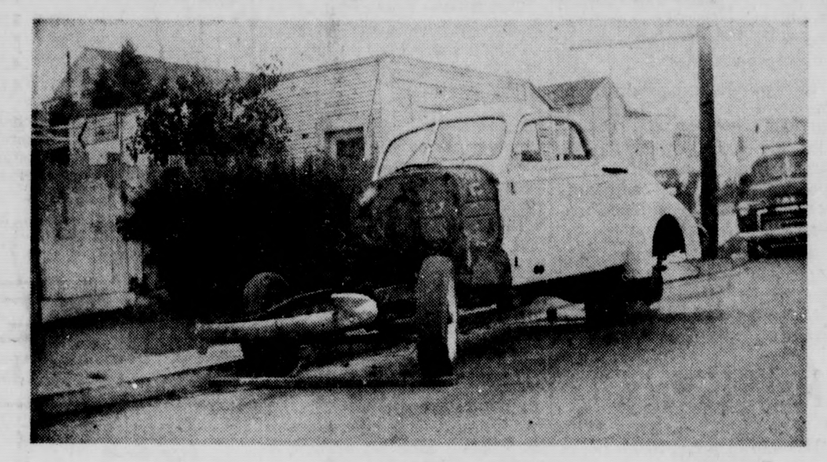
$10 MILLION HOSPITAL DUE HERE

The Roving Cameraman Has A 'Field Day' In Town



THE SPOILERS continue to ignore Daly City's present anti-litterbug and public nuisance drive. These pictures, taken just a few days ago, are samples of the many sorry sights residents are complaining about. All city departments are on the lookout for offenders and you can be sure they will have to make amends or face prosecution. A community's reputation can be erased by such spectacles. If you know who's to blame, let these individuals know about it!

250-Bed Facility Mapped For Plateau Area Off Hillside

Daly City will have a $10 million ultra modern hospital within the next three years!

This was made definite Monday when Mary's Help Hospital officials purchased for $265,000 the 7½ acre site on this town's eastern slope from motelman Hugh Smith Jr. The plateau-like parcel lies between Brunswick, Wellington, Hillside and East Vista avenue.

A 250-bed new facility is projected by architects Stone, Marraccini and Patterson. Ultimate plans include a nursing school. The first increment will have a 50-basinette maternity ward.

Sister Hermine, Mary's Help administrator, today said construction will start "as soon as we finalize our expectations for financing the new hospital."

"If, and I repeat if we are able early next year to obtain federal aid Hillburton funds and our solicitation drive brings good response, we may be ready to start building late in 1961."

Sister Hermine, referring to her experience in Milwaukee, estimated construction should take "at least two years." It took that long to erect a 167-bed hospital in the Wisconsin city.

A big hunk of the money needed for the new Mary's Help, is expected from the sale of the present hospital at 145 Guerrero street in San Francisco. The entire staff will make the transfer to Daly City.

"This is valuable property and it is being appraised now," Sister Hermine revealed.

Judges Will Air Views On 'Court'

Daly City councilmen are eager to pursue the idea of bringing a municipal court here, but first they want to find out how much support will come from the county's judges and the board of supervisors.

"This is not an overnight undertaking," said Mayor Frank Pacelli in council study session Monday night. "But I think we know we have to get started by determining what our chances are."

The council agreed with Pacelli that a meeting with Muni Judge Charles Becker and Superior Judge Frank Blum, both Daly City residents, is in order to sound them out on the need for a muni court here and how best to approach the problem.

Meanwhile, 25th District Assemblyman Louis Francis has announced his draft of a bill for the next state legislature session asking for authorization of a second judge in the north county judicial district.

City Attorney Paul Hupf told councilmen Monday evening that the support of both Francis and State Senator Richard Dolwig would be important. He also stressed that equal impetus must come from county supervisors.

Hupf conceded it may be September of 1961 before the legislature is ready for a decision on this proposal and he pointed out, "the best chance we have is to have a new court approved for the existing north county judicial district," adding, "I don't think there is much hope for the establishment of a new district."

Pacelli pointed out that authorization of a muni judge in Daly City might be a remote possibility because the new courthouse to be built in South San Francisco will have two courtrooms -- thus two muni judges to serve Daly City, Pacifica, South San Francisco, Colma and the unincorporated

WILL COUNCIL LISTEN?

City Employees Want More Pay

Daly City's 195 municipal employees, disgruntled over what they feel was a "low" fiscal year salary increase, are expected to appeal directly to the city council at next Monday's meeting for "upward" adjustments and more fringe benefits.

At the last city personnel board meeting, head of the Police and Firemen's Association indicated they wanted a joint meeting with the personnel board and council to discuss adjustments.

The personnel board turned them down, declaring that it already had made a careful study and recommendations on wages prior to budget adoption. But the board felt a direct appeal to the city council by the Police-Firemen's group would be a logical approach.

City employees for the fiscal year beginning this July were granted flat 3 percent wage increases although the personnel board recommended a 2½ per cent hike from July 1 to January and another 2½ percent jump thereafter.

The Police and Fire Assn. had asked for 10 per cent across the board boosts and the Muni Employees Union straight 5 per cent increases. The personnel board then went for a total fiscal year jump of 3.75 per cent, but the council trimmed this to 3 per cent.

In his letter to the personnel board, fireman Charles E. Christian, president of the Police and Fire Assn., declared: "After completing surveys and compiling them, it was noted that our members fell far behind other Peninsula cities in salaries and conditions. It is the desire of the membership to have the personnel board arrange a special meeting with the city council and personnel board members with members of the Police and Firemen's Assn. Wage and Negotiations Committee. At this meeting, the Wage and Negotiations Committee shall present to the city council and personnel board

MAIN LIBRARY STILL AWAITING ITS FURNITURE

If a $21,000 furniture shipment from Syracuse, New York, arrives this week as scheduled, Daly City's new main library may open its doors the first time next Monday.

City Librarian Sam Chandler said at press time the Remington Rand furniture shipment is due this Thursday. Official dedication of the new facility will be scheduled for early October.

Chandler said 6000 books from the now defunct Park Plaza branch in Westlake have been placed in the new building and $10,000 more in new books is awaited. With the new volumes, Chandler expects to have a starting stock of 10,000 books for the Westlake addition. It's capacity is 30,000 books, and already some citizens have suggested a community-wide donations drive to secure more books.

The new library on Southgate avenue — not far from the postoffice — will be open from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday, and from 9 to 5 p.m. on Saturdays — the same schedule as the 6351 Mission street library branch. The

UNIFORM SALES TAX?

Council Won't Give County 'Any' More Than Five Percent

Daly City officials don't care what arrangements other Peninsula cities make with the county on sales tax splits, but if the levy is adopted by supervisors, councilmen here won't agree to more than a 5 percent share of local receipts for the county.

Mayor Frank Pacelli emphasized this solid stand Monday night in study session when City Manager Edward Frank explained the status of talks between County Manager Bob Stallings and officials of the majority of Peninsula cities without sales tax who expect supervisors to vote one county-wide within the next few months.

Under Daly City's sales tax ordinances, the county's share—if a county-wide tax materializes—will be five percent. Stallings reportedly proposes a uniform tax with 10 percent of each city's revenue reverting back to the county for new county buildings and road improvements on a matching basis.

That sales tax county-wide is inevitable is just about taken for granted by the city representatives. The question is how many cities will go along with the full 10 percent for the county.

City Attorney Paul Hupf reaffirmed Pacelli's position by declaring: "The county can't force us to give them 10 percent nor are we compelled to go along with percentages that

Woman, 71, Hit By Drunk Driver, Dies Instantly

Felony drunk driving and manslaughter charges will be filed against a San Francisco carpenter whose car struck and killed a 71-year-old Daly City woman Friday at 12:35 p.m. along the cemetery strip in Colma.

Mrs. Edna A. Kenney, 259 Irvington street, was knocked an estimated 200 feet when the vehicle driven by James Motta, 43, 301 Carl street, crashed into her. A bookkeeper at Elmer's Florist Shop next to Cypress Lawn Cemetery, she was attempting to cross El Camino from the West to East side when the tragedy occurred.

Several witnesses told Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage, Colma Chief Al Lagomarsino and California Highway Patrol they saw Motta's car swerving from lane to lane and speeding at least 50 in the 35 mph zone.

Motta will be arraigned in municipal court, South San Francisco, Tuesday next week.

Police To Try Out Radar Here

If it will save lives and reduce accidents, then "radar" is just what the doctor ordered!

So pronounced Daly City councilmen in approving Police Chief Roland Petrocchi's request for giving radar timers a try here to ease and improve traffic conditions.

Petrocchi, given the go ahead, plans to place radar timers and signs noting that "speed will be checked by radar" on several major streets —such as Hillside boulevard, Southgate avenue, St. Francis boulevard and Skyline drive.

Wrote Petrocchi: "The signs will be permanent and effective 24 hours a day without the use of the radar timer at any particular location. I feel the use of these radar timers will not only save us man hours spent on citizen-requested traffic surveys but will in many cases eliminate the necessity of conducting surveys. The psychological effect of the signs along with the enforcement by use of the radar should eliminate many problems by reducing speed and traffic hazards."

The chief said he checked with Municipal Judge Charles Becker "and he has no objection to the use of radar." City Attorney Paul Hupf also verbally confirmed that the law recognizes radar readings as being accurate and substantial as evidence.

Petrocchi was authorized to check on immediate purchase and/or rental of the radar devices which will be hooked up with the police department's headquarters and mobile unit network.

The chief said one company sells the timers for $995 apiece and rents individual units on a monthly basis for $120. The

Councilmen To Meet Early Monday Night

Daly City councilmen, who met Monday evening in special study session, will hold their regular public meeting next Monday night, 8 o'clock, at 75 Wellington avenue. Their regular study session will be held at 7 o'clock next Monday.

Ex-Leatherneck 'Retires' After Many Campaigns

A Marine deserter whose crime career started in Connecticut a few weeks ago surrundered to Daly City police inside Spotlite Market last Sunday just before midnight after a "warning" shot was fired over the 22-year-old wanderer's head.

Facing prosecution by the FBI, Daly City and South San Francisco police, plus other agencies across the country is 22-year-old Robert Jones, alias Robert Markwood.

The new arrival to the Bay Area was foiled in his attempt to burglarize Spotlite "after" closing hours. He hid in the upstairs storeroom about 9 p.m., but Special Officer Richard Leahy and store manager Patrick Fagundes were still very much on the job at 11:05 p.m.

This was when Leahy heard noises upstairs, encountered the partially hidden Markwood, and yelled for Fagundes to summon police.

They arrived in force with guns ready. Markwood wouldn't budge. Then Officer Frank Murray fired a shot far over the suspect's head. Markwood then decided to call it an evening.

"My hands are up," he

Was Your Last Water Bill High? Well, These Are The Facts - - - -

Did your last Daly City water bill seem extraordinarily high?

No doubt it was, but there was reason for it, city councilmen want you to know. There was no change in the water rate but there was a change in personnel—the city's water meter reader who failed to do his job correctly and fouled up the works.

City Finance Director Joseph Arch told councilmen that the water meter reader—dismissed from employment last Friday—in earlier meter checks apparently didn't fully make his rounds. In short, he skipped most of the meters and "averaged" them out so that true water consumption was not reflected in the subsequent billings.

Arch's office quickly discovered the discrepancies and the water meter reader—who was a probationary employee with less than six months on the job—was fired.

Scores of residents have complained about their recent "high" bills, but Arch and the council feel no refunds or adjustments can be made because actually if earlier billings had been correct, the bills would have been higher on these previous readings. In other words, the latest billing brings the city and water consumers back to balance.

Mayor Frank Pacelli instructed Arch to send out notices to all water users informing them fully of the predicament and the fact that it has been resolved.

Customer Walks In, Runs Out As Thief

A would-be customer strolled into Hopman Electric and Radio, 6309 Mission street, and minutes later dashed out with a $200 portable TV set Monday night about 7:30.

The owner and helper Fred Adams, 222 Del Prado drive, working in the back of the store while the suspect browsed around, described the thief as being about 32, 5-10 and 150 pounds, wearing a moustache, tan jacket and tan pants. He sped away in an unlicensed 1960 salmon-colored Rambler sedan.

TOPS — Take Off Pounds Sensibly — is a new Westlake group newly organized and looking for members.

The group meets Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the nursery of the Westlake Bowl, 99 Southgate avenue. It has no commercial connections.

Mrs. Francis R. Sainsbury, president of the club, says the purpose of TOPS is primarily to help women with a serious weight problem who need to lose 20 pounds or more.

It is based on group therapy, getting together to discuss the problem frankly without fear of being laughed at or misunderstood.

MOTEL BANDITS FOILED HERE IN 'RAPID' FASHION

Less than 45 minutes after two men robbed the new San Francisco Motel, 6925 Mission street, Saturday night, they were apprehended by a swarm of Daly City and Broadmoor police.

Arraigned in muni court yesterday were Edward E. Miller, 38, "baker and cook," and Keith L. Fisher, 26, a utility firm salesman. Both gave their address as 177 Corbett avenue, San Francisco.

Asst. motel manager Robert Wall yielded $115 in $5 and $1 bills to the pair at gunpoint about 8:59 p.m. They fled in an old model Buick sedan with motel resident Donald Wikline, who saw them dashing from the office, in pursuit. Wikline lost them in the darkness and traffic.

Wall phoned police and Broadmoor was alerted. Officer Charles Manningsoon spotted the suspects' auto parked in front of a residence on Hill street near Mission. By this time, DC officers Jim Bergstrom, Phil LaBruzzo, Frank Murray and Sgt. David Hansen arrived to join Manning and Broadmoor Special Officer James Smith.

Both bandits surrendered without too much rebuttal, but they were handcuffed just the same. In their auto police found a "Perfecta" starters pistol (a blank firing weapon), a bag full of groceries and the cash, plus assorted other items and appliances — all presumably stolen property.

Both suspects admitted their guilt and were identified by their victim, according to Lieutenant Bruno Conci who finalized the case.

POLICE DEPT. LADIES 'SUITED' FOR THE WORK

No one can say the ladies who work in Daly City's police department aren't "easy on the eyes."

The trio—clerk-typist Muriel Mermon, Helen Sherwood and Josephine Runne — are even more "suited" for the job now that they've purchased brand-new Wave-type duty uniforms —Navy blue skirts, ties, white blouses and the department's left shoulder patches.

It was Mrs. Sherwood's idea, to serve two purposes—identification and "spirit," so to speak. The new garb gives the three a stronger sense of "belonging" to the department. And since they process and encounter all the paperwork rigors of law enforcement, the women believe the new regulation costumes will bring sober recognition of their efforts.

In short, they are proud to be members of the team.

If you had to pay the bill—like Helen, Muriel and Josephine did (voluntarily) — the cost of such a uniform is about $85.

Pride in the profession is the best way to pinpoint their reasons.

And the men in the department think the trio look just dandy!

POLICE FIZZLE 'GANG FIGHT' TALK AT JEFF

Week-long rumors that a minor scuffle at Jefferson High would erupt into an all-out brawl between members of a teen club and other students required the surveillance of Daly City police up until last Saturday.

Capt. Roy Beecher and Lt. Bruno Conci, assisted by juvenile specialist Sgt. Charles Terry investigated after parents of several members of the "Los Fantasimos," San Francisco youth group including some Jeff High boys, reported that they had heard threats of a gang war.

Beecher checked with Jeff High officials and the "Youth For Service" agency in San Francisco. Both sources said apparently a dispute between a few members of the "Los Fantasimos" and other students was leading to a showdown. But thanks to the police, no trouble ensued and tempers subsided.

Beecher said his check with the SF agency verified that the "Los Fantasimos" are a public-service youth group and were respected as such in that city. Only about 10 of them are from Jeff High.

Jeff officials did take one step, however, to eliminate the alleged friction between the club's members and certain other students. This was in ordering the "Los Fantasimos" not to wear their "identification jackets" to class.

$7500 Donated By Guild Aids Hospital Drive

At their opening fall meeting this Friday, Mary's Help Hospital Guild members will view the results of the $7500 they contributed to the hospital last year. Sister Hermine, administrator of the hospital, announces that the waiting room has been renovated, conversation groups have been placed in the corridors, and many rooms have been improved with new draperies and furniture.

The clinic, which is the largest operated by any of the voluntary hospitals in Northern California, now has upholstered benches. These items will be used also in the costly new hospital which is to be built in the Daly City area to replace present antiquated facilities.

Dedicated women from all walks of life make up the Guild.

Officers for this year are Mesdames A. R. Sanchez-Corea, president; T. J. Pope, 1st vice-president; Hunter Duvall, 2nd vice-president; Andrew Ryan, recording secretary; William Dwyer, corresponding secretary; Norman Wheeler, treasurer; William Welsh and Chester Cooley, directors. Also on the Board of Directors of the Guild is Mrs. J. C. Simpson Jr., president of the Mary's Help Hospital Alumnae Association.

Budget Savings Robbery Solved

San Mateo police helped Daly City officers write "case closed" on the August 12 robbery at Budget Savings Market, 6001 Mission street, in which the gun-bearer got $517 in cash.

Carl Gregory Foss, exact address unknown, has been apprehended as the Budget Savings invader and also faces prosecution for two similar stickups in San Francisco.

Foss fits the description of the suspect wanted here—6-1, 45 to 50 years old, and Latin-looking.

He was scheduled for arraignment in muni court this week.

Morton Explains Sewage Status On Callan Park

Attorney James Morton of the North San Mateo County Sanitation District submitted the following letter to directors Monday during their regular meeting in an attempt to clarify the position of the district in regard to Callan Park sewage arrangements.

The letter by Morton is printed in entirety so that any interpretation made thereof can be confined to his exact statements.

The letter:

Gentlemen:

In accordance with your request, we are writing this letter to clarify your position with reference to the proposed sanitary sewer improvements to serve Callan Park and other areas adjacent thereto, which must be served by a sanitary sewearage system other than that presently existing.

As you are aware, the District has a uniform policy of requiring developers to provide their own facilities for the disposition of sanitary sewage. District regulations require that as a condition precedent to connection to District facilities, the District be furnished with complete plans and specifications which are subject to approval by the District Board. The regulations also require the issuance of a permit for the making of any extensions or the connection of any facilities to the District system. The permit constitutes an agreement between the developer and the District to make the installations in accordance with the plans and specifications and at the expense of the developer, or to make provision for the installation of the facilities by the District under procedures established by the District.

All sanitary sewer main extensions and all connections are subject to complete control by the District.

In the Callan Park area, it was proposed that an Improvement District be formed prior to the granting of any permit which would authorize the issuance of sufficient bonds to finance the construction of facilities required for the area, and for any other areas similarly situated which might be connected into the facilities constructed for Callan Park.

The bonds which have been proposed to be issued would be general obligation bonds of the Improvement District, and would be the sole obligation of the Improvement District. Additional areas might subsequently be annexed to the Improvement District in the event such areas were to be served by facilities constructed by the Improvement District. In such event the annexed areas would become subject to taxes to pay a shore of the Improvement District bonds.

There would be no obligation on the part of the North San Mateo County Sanitation District outside the boundaries of the Improvement District to pay any share of the principal or interest on the bonds.

Midnight Window Smash Nets Gun

Patrolman Robert Stables missed by minutes a burglary of Colma Hardware, 7340 Mission street, last week. A 4 by 7 foot show-window was broken and a .45 caliber revolver taken.

Stables said that he was on foot patrol of the area when he heard the glass smash and tinkle on the sidewalk. Running toward the sound, he saw someone hot-footing it up the street.

Special policeman Richard Leahy arrived at the same time Stables did. They radioed for help on Leahy's set and the area was combed without success. Owner Waldo Smith of 27 Werner street came to his store and said only the gun was taken.

area."

The mayor said, however, that if a superior court judge were authorized and assigned permanently to South San Francisco, then our chances of getting one of the muni judges for Daly City would be much better."

Hupf explained that Judge Becker and his staff in South San Francisco handle the heaviest daily calendars in the county. He noted that the criminal and traffic cases are so numerous that there hardly is time for civil case processing. Also, Hupf said a superior court judge sits in South SF only twice a month -- on the second and fourth Fridays.

"If th county's judges think a court for Daly City is warranted, then I think we may be successful," Hupf concluded.

Shelby, Ross, president of the Muni Employees Union, also told the personnel board that his group would like to discuss adjustments in a joint meeting. They will act indipendently of the Police-Firemen's group, however.

Mayor Frank Pacelli Monday night said he was not aware of the employees request since "the council has not received a letter, as yet, from them."

Mission branch has 18,000 books on its shelves.

At last week's City Library Commission meeting, Dr. Lionel Farbar, a biochemist who lives at 159 Wilshire avenue, was re-elected chairman for another year. Housewives Maude Hanselman, 506 Hillside boulevard, and Sarah Kelecheva, 141 Windsor drive, round out the five member commission. Commissioner Frank De Martini's term has expired and H. Clifford Dignam has moved out of Daly City. Replacements are expected to be made by the city council at its next regular meeting.

Chandler's office will be in the new main library. Mrs. Velma B. Yule, 263 Alevander avenue, will be librarian in charge, and Miss Rose Marie Kraus, children's librarian for the city, also will be stationed at the Southgate avenue plant.

The Mission branch staff will be headed by Mrs. Joy Belle Jackson, 61 Park Plaza drive; Ceeil Saarinen, 735 San Diego avenue, and Mrs. Maxine Gates, 9 Mayfield avenue — all veterans of the department. In addition, these full-timers will be assisted by six part-time library assistants (who work about 19 hours each a week) and four or five library pages (10 to 12 hours each a week).

A '58 Corvette, second car stolen in New England by the fast-moving fellow, was found parked outside the Sprouse-Reitz store on Mission.

According to Police Capt. Roy Beecher, Markwood admitted the two auto thefts, a string of burglaries to get items for "cash," cashing stolen checks, and recent drive-in and store burglaries in South San Francisco.

The ex-Leatherneck, whose timing was pretty good up until Sunday, figured Spotlite would close at 9 p.m. and he could "take his pick" after all the employees were gone.

His occupation at first was unknown, but he gave the Turk street YMCA as his address. Police won't have to worry about his employment the next few years.

would be approved by the other cities."

The city manager noted that only three of California's 55 counties lack sales tax "and no doubt the levy will be uniform before too long."

Councilman Joseph Verducci reminded: "We stuck our necks out for sales tax two years ago and we have benefitted by it . . . what the other cities work out with the county is strictly their political show . . . we'll stick with the 5 percent limitation."

Daly City's sales tax "sisters" are Menlo Park, Belmont, Millbrae, and San Carlos.

Police Chase, Nab Visiting Tire Thieves

Tire thieves were caught here in the early hours last Wednesday morning after two hot police chases by the Daly City Department.

Driving west on Alemany boulevard, Patrolman Robert Crooker saw a car beside the road near the Doelger lumber yard and a man fooling around the trunk.

He tried to turn around, but was hemmed in by traffic. Just as he finally was able to make the turn he saw the car speed off without lights. Racing up, he noticed a car going at breakneck speed down Junipero Serra boulevard, and set out in chase.

Just before he caught the car 1 and a half miles later in St. Francis Heights, he saw it was the wrong one.

But at that moment, Patrolman Al Nicolini radioed that he was chasing a car, like the one Crooker had seen, across Knowles avenue.

Crooker issued a speeding ticket and quickly headed after Nicolini.

The car Nicolini was chasing ran red lights and stop signs across Knowles and down Mission street, and was finally forced to the side at Goethe street by Nicolini and Lt. Al Conci who had answered the radio call.

Eight brand new tires were found in the back seat and the trunk. Police arrested Isaih Adcock, 29, of 2128 E. 20th avenue, Oakland; Julian Thompson, 32, of 1505 West street, Oakland and Clyde Kingsberry, 28, of 9094 40th street, Oakland.

Crooker and Sgt. Jerry Galindo checked five gas stations and found the last one broken open—Westlake Wilshire, 200 Junipero Serra boulevard.

Called out of bed, manager Lee Warren of 500 Southgate avenue said 12 new tires had been stolen. Since they had recovered only eight, Crooker and Galindo went to the Doelger lumber yard on a hunch and found the other four tires. Warren identified all 12.

Played With Manhole Covers

Don't be too hard on the streets.

They have a way of getting even.

A San Francisco State student found out the hard way last week. Richard L. Minderman of 1750 22nd avenue, San Francisco, parked his car near the corner of 90th street and Junipero Serra boulevard. He ran his left front wheel up over a water department manhole.

The manhole cover flipped up and cracked into the side of his car.

Joint Board Keeps Eye On 'Problem' Kids

Although the majority of student difficulties are solved when and where they start, quite a few are not.

Once a month, officers from the Daly City police, schools, California Youth Authority, Welfare and Public Health departments, city recreation department and probation departments meet here. It is the Jefferson - Westmoor Adjustment Committee.

Here's what happens; police Sgt. Charles Terry speaking:

"Say the teachers have spotted a poorly dressed student—and perhaps poorly nourished. The same boy might also be a non-participant in play.

"The recreation director says, 'I know that boy: he doesn't get along with the other kids.'

"The police say, 'Yes, we see him hanging around the street.'

"What's necessary, the committee asks. Should the Welfare people step in? Health department, police? We decide to refer the student to.

"The police might talk with his parents. Warn them. Tell them to see that the kid has some chores to do—or some organized sport to join. Maybe the family needs financial help.

"The Welfare department can not offer help. People have to go to them, and we might tell the parents to go. The Recreation department would make a point of fitting the kid in some program.

"So all report back next month. The committee keeps an eye on the boy until things have settled down."

Resident Urges Public Drive To 'Stock' Library

Dear Editor:

Daly City's new library soon will be open in Westlake. Anyone can see that it is a well planned and beautiful building. The new library's capacity is 30,000 books. On opening day it will have approximately 6000 books. Under present budget limitations it will take several years to outfit it properly with the technical and, reference books that are necessary for our children's education.

Daly City's fine library commission, headed by Dr. Farber, has some very good ideas in regard to audio, visual and picture programs. This will all take money, and under present circumstances, time. I say, if we have a fine library, let's use it to its full extent. I am sure all the people of Daly City—its businessmen, builders, etc. would get behind a drive to raise the necessary funds to outfit the new library properly.

I would like to recommend that the Friends of the Library start such a drive and the newspapers give it publicity. A library without sufficient books is not a library at all.

Sincerely your,
Timothy J. Christen

'Letter Writing Week' Explained By Postmaster

The 23rd annual Letter Writing Week will be celebrated in Daly City from October 2 to 8, Postmaster Vincent P. Murphy announced today.

Murphy noted that there has been a revival of personal letter writing during the last few years. "A letter remains the most economical, longest lasting, and sincerest means of extending greetings, communicating social news, and exchanging ideas," the Postmaster said.

During Letter Writing Week, Postmaster Murphy suggested that individuals write at least two letters: one to a friend or relative from whom you have not heard in a long time, and second as a reply to a friend or relative who recently wrote to you. He also urged correspondence to people in other countries as a means of promoting greater understanding among the people of different nations.

The slogan of this year's event, as indicated on more than 200,000 banners, is "Letters are Links to Friendship." The display materials will appear on post office bulletin boards, as well as in various schools and libraries.

'Public Works Week' Proclamation Inked For Oct. 2-8 Here

The period October 2 to 8 is "National Public Works Week," and Daly City Mayor Frank Pacelli has signed a local proclamation. It urges residents "to acquaint themselves with the problems involved in providing public works facilities and services; and recognize the need for professional personnel in this field and the important role they play in our democratic system of government."

The national observances, however, won't "holiday" Daly City's public works office, headed by City Engineer Bill Chapman.

Work — and there's plenty of it — will go on, as usual.

AROUND TOWN

SCUTTLEBUTT has it that the citizens' group rumoring for a recall will hold off and wait for the '62 municipal election.

Another gust is that mid-October will be the turning point. If a recall campaign doesn't get started by then, the council may be spared the fury until much later.

MONDAY'S city council meeting will be a fill-the-gap session. To be plugged are a pair of vacancies on the library commission, one on the personnel board, and another on the planning commission.

Earlier report that Commissioner Tony Masini's term had expired on the planners was correct. It did expire, but he was reappointed six months ago. Veteran Roy Foster's term is up, and his long service is worthy of more than casual mention. Seriously interested in city progress, Foster should be commended—and reappointed?

CONSTRUCTION of the Mormon Stake House off Hillside boulevard is about three-fourths finished and the church should open in January next year, according to a Latter Day Saints spokesman.

The huge new building will cost about $500,000—give or take a few pennies. Volunteer labor cut the bill considerably.

VETERAN Daly City lawyer Hartley Appleton, former elementary school board chairman and north county bar association leader, called Friday and asked for a picture "to take the place of 1000 words."

Hartley was in South City Hall awaiting court and the line was as long as a piece of rope.

"'Do we need a new court in DC," he asked. "Just come over and take a look at the number of people waiting this morning for their cases to be handled."

NOBODY asked, but did you know that Mission street insurance-realtors Bill and Rico Lagomarsino once worked as cemetery employees?

They went into the higher level business as partners in 1940.

Lagomarsino is almost a common name in the DC-Colma area. There must be a hundred of them.

The clan originated in Italia and there's a town over there by the same name—something to do with a lake, Bill says.

CAN'T for the life of us figure out why some teenagers "soup up" those fairly new cars so much—elevating the back ends, removing the hubcaps and painting the things so they look like something out of Disneyland.

Maybe they think they look more jazzy, but honestly, folks, Detroit is paying some high-bred engineers millions of dollars to design vehicles each year in a very competitive business.

EVER wonder how much money the state of California "saves" each year by not issuing new metal license plates?

Last time we looked, the old '56 plate and the plastic '60 sticker still appeared incompatible.

Guess providing new plates each year would keep the convicts too busy and put the tax rate higher.

City Manager Edward Frank finally got moved into his Daly City home in the Palisades on Westridge avenue.

Since he arrived here last March, Frank had been commuting daily from Petaluma. He arose much earlier than the chickens up there so's to be down here on time for duty.

Ed's son is at Westmoor High. Up until last week, dad and lad had to get out of the sack at 5 a.m., drive 50 or so miles, et cetera. It's enough to make you sleepy just thinking about it.

TEACHERS at Jefferson Elementary School examine new facilities in recently constructed Allemany street addition. Mrs. Alice O'Connell and Mrs. Elenore Hill, primary teachers who formerly taught at the old Jefferson Annex, which was constructed around the turn of the century, expressed considerable enthusiasm with the new two-room addition completed this summer and located immediately adjacent to the Jefferson Elementary School.

THREE-DAY FUND RAISER

O.L.P.H. Parishioners Busy As Bees With 'Festival' Planning

November 4, 5 and 6 are the dates set for the Festival to be held by Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in the school auditorium at the Daly City's "top of the hill." The committee has chosen the title "The Soaring Sixties" for this affair and this space-age theme will be carried out in the decorations, costumes of the workers and general atmosphere.

For many years Our Lady of Perpetual Help held a Fall Festival, selected a theme and carried it out in such a clever way that visitors from Daly City and our neighboring cities flocked to admire. The committee at a recent meeting, announced that Louis Thiebaut will be in charge of decorations for the affair.

Members of the various parish organizations are acting as chairmen for this affair, which will feature just about everything to make a fun-time for both old and young.

Good food will certainly be one of the main features as in addition to the feature dinner, which will be served on Sunday, Mrs. William Gonzales and Mrs. Harry Hettel will have charge of a Snack Booth. These ladies will be assisted by a large committee made up of mothers of the first grade pupils at Our Lady of Perpetual Help School.

Always a hit and a standby at festivals and bazaars is the Grocery Booth. Mrs. Ernest Reyes, chairman of the booth, announced that she has many valuable donations and pointed out that here is a good way to stock up your larder. In this day when our living costs also live up to the theme of "The Soaring Sixties" this is too good a bargain to pass up.

Snappy Tyrolean hats are very popular among the high school set and, of course, the younger children copy their heroes. Mr. and Mrs. James Bell will present a booth which will feature these attractive little has and will even put your name on it for you.

Rumor has it that Rita Perkov has a terrific Sports Booth planned which promises to be one of the most popular booths at the Festival—at least with the boys.

Mrs. Joseph Castellano, Sandra Castellano, Al Estrada and Thiebaut are combining their efforts and talents and will have a Children's Booth which will feature games of all sorts and will be stocked with stuffed toys, Panda bears and games for the lucky and skillful young people.

To help with the less interesting but equally important jobs of a clerical nature, are Roy Thompson and Fred Klingler.

Constanine Ragone and his committee have been working for weeks on the Festival. They are in charge of a games night every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock to which the public is welcomed. Proceeds of these games are being used to underwrite the cost of the Festival.

Progress meetings are being held periodically to check Festival activities and it was reported that a Space Man may be present at the next meeting.

Proceeds of the Festival will go toward Our Lady of Perpetual Help's Building Fund.

W'lake Lutheran Sunday School Has 160 Kids

Graduate caps and diplomas, special awards, and a Walt Disney religious film set the scene at Westlake Lutheran on "Rally Day September 11, when more than 160 children and teachers ushered in the new fall term of the Sunday School.

Honored guests were members of the second grade class who were promoted into third grade and a new department. Members of last year's seventh grade class received individual gifts in recognition of their high record of faithful attendance. Certificates to those with a month's perfect attendance were also presented. Approximately 15 new children were enrolled for the first time.

A trained staff of 25 teachers and associates were on hand to greet their new pupils. Teachers recently completed a two-part session of orientation at the church and a two-day Church Worker's Institute held in Burlingame and sponsored by the National Board of Parish Education.

New policies and ideas are being put into use this year under the leadership of Mrs. Curtis Rehn, Westlake Lutheran's newly appointed Director of Parish Education. Surprise For Miss Loftus!

Her engagement to Earl G. Bryce of Oakland was announced in October last year. A fall wedding is planned.

Twenty-five guests accepted the hospitality of the two hostesses, Miss Judy Turnbow, Thomasine's lifetime friend, and Miss Linda Loftus, her sister.

The buffet table was in silver and white, with a five-tiered wedding cake, made by the prospective bridegroom's mother, and a large silver tree, with white parasols. White stock, white roses and white carnations were used throughout the living and dining rooms.

Salvation Army In New Drive For 'Discards'

An intensive drive gets underway this week to secure increased donations of mendable discards of clothing, furniture and household articles necessary to make possible the new research and development program of the Salavation Army Men's Social Service Center in San Francisco. Donations of useable discards provide the necessary work therapy program of the Center which is supported entirely by the sale of reconditioned material through the Thrift Shops.

The Center recently was awarded a Federal grant of almost $300,000 to aid in a five-year program of research in the field of alcoholism. To qualify for the grant, the Center itself must raise an additional $200,000. This will be done without a public appeal for funds. Captain George W. Duplain, Center manager, said the money will be raised through the salvage program. He said the grant will enable the Center to develop new techniques for the treatment of alcoholics.

In making the public appeal for support by donations of usuable discards and clothing, Captain Duplain noted that nearly one million Salavation Army salvage bags are already in the hands of homeowners and residents of the Bay area, and that if the bags were returned filled with clothing it would go a long way in helping to meet the financial needs of the Center. Donations can be made by calling a Red Shield truck.

Family Service (Crusade Agency) Goes To Bat For Those In Need

You can't always talk—or think—your troubles through. Even with the best of counselors. That's why United Crusade agencies have to go to bat for people . . . the way Family Service did for the B's.

John B. is a civilian employee at a Bay Area military base. He and Emily wanted a child so much that they took in a foster child—seven-year-old Mike—while they waited for a baby to adopt. Mike was cute and bright, but he had been shuttled from one foster home to another. And he was a very troubled little boy, always asking for punishment. The B's were about to give him up. They'd really wanted a baby anyway. But, first, the county foster care people asked them to try a United Crusade Family Service agency.

Gradually, counselors at Family Service made the B's see that Mike was testing them—daring them to give him up, as his own mother and a succession of foster parents had done. They became fond of Mike and saw, too, that they were his last chance . . . that he just couldn't stand any more rejection.

In time, little Mike came to see that he was trying to prove "Everybody hates me." And soon the B's asked to adopt him.

All this brought Mike's real mother back on the scene. She had casually given up all her six children. But now that Mike was turning into a fine, bright boy she wanted him back. It didn't matter that Mike was afraid of her and wanted to stay with his new parents.

Here Family Service went to bat—convinced the judge that the B's should adopt Mike. And now this family is on its own. But every day other Bay Area couples adopt children or find help with family problems through United Crusade agencies.

Parents of youngsters who attend Colma K-6 and Colma Intermediate are urged to attend Hillside PTA's kickoff meeting this Thursday night in the school's multi-purpose room.

PTA President Ed Maita announces the meeting will start at 8 p.m. and "you moms and dads should be there."

The theme fittingly will be "Meet Your Teacher" as Colma K-6 Principal Eleanor Zenovich and Intermediate Principal Dr. Bernhard Gerdes will introduce their instructors.

Special guests will be Richard Foster, superintendent of Jefferson Elementary District.

A featured attraction will be an exhibition of prints of pictures by well-known artists who donated them to both schools. William Briner, school art teacher, will comment on these works.

Hillside PTA's membership push—dads, this means you, too—will be from October 10 to 28. This could be a record membership year.

In October the unit's paper drive will be held and Mrs. Helen Rizzo, ways and means committee chairman, will give all the details.

Maita is so enthused about the PTA's program that he urges parents "to even bring your neighbors to our meetings; you get first hand information on what our children are learning."

Hillside meetings are the last Thursday evening each month in the multi-use room. The executive board meets the second Monday evening of the month.

Mrs. Reta Poole, 438 D street, Colma is the publicity chairman. She can be contacted for more information at PL 6-2364.

In addition bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the District on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the District. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the County Clerk by mail, upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon deposit made by the successful bidder.

There is no controversy or litigation pending or threatened concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of said District, or the title of the officers to their respective offices.

Buy A Ticket And You Help Two Causes!

Hundreds of county residents will gather at San Mateo's Peninsula Social Club building on October 9 at 4 p.m. to join in the Columbus Day Festival sponsored by the Italian-American Federation of San Mateo County.

There will be an Italian dinner, and the Grand Ball will folow the Coronation of Queen Isabella. The queen selected for selling the most votes will preside over the activities.

Young girls are presently selling tickets to win this title, but the utmost importance is that the Federation donates all proceeds from these tickets sales to the Crippled Children's Society of San Mateo County. In previous years, the Federation has contributed to scholarships for needy students. This year, however, as was done the past year, the donation to the Society was voted upon by the member delegates of the Federation.

I.A.F. President Dan Casentini of Daly City invites all interested persons to join in the county's celebrated Columbus Day program by purchasing the votes from the contestants.

All persons interested in obtaining reservations to this affair are urged to call the Peninsula Social Club, DIamond 3-9819, or Casentini, PLaza 6-4521.

DALY CITY'S Roberta Bacci is a queen contestant for the Italian-American Federation's Columbus Day Festival. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Paoli, Roberta attends Jefferson High School. She is representing the Sons of Italy in this contest, of which all proceeds from ticket sales will go to the Crippled Children's Society of San Mateo County.

OLPH LADIES CELEBRATE

Court St. Mary Will Mark Unit's Thirtieth Birthday With Dinner

Members of Court St. Mary No. 1155, Catholic Daughters of America, and their guests, will gather at a dinner party to observe the thirtieth birthday of the Court's founding, at Caesar's Restaurant in San Francisco, on Thursday evening, September 29 at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Elmo Pucci, chairman of the evening, will be assisted by Mrs. Charles Wettstein, Mrs. Louise Barnard and Miss Susie Brady.

Court St. Mary, the forty-third court in the state of California, was instituted on July 13, 1960. Mrs. Ellis C. Johnson served as its first Grand Regent.

At that time 36 charter members put the new court on its feet. It grew and prospered in membership and at present has 180 members.

Eleven of the charter members are still with the Court. Of these, three are exceptionally staunch Catholic Daughters and rarely have missed meetings—Mrs. Charlotte Ford, now of Westlake; and Mrs. Angela Johnson and her sister, Mrs. William Core, of Daly City. Mrs. Fred Wettstein Sr. of San Francisco, also a charter member, is now serving as California Vice State Regent of the organization, having been elected to the post for a two-year term at the state convention in May. Other charter members include the Mmes. Margaret Fields, Helen Rode, Anna Manning, Marion Marchington, Rose Romiguiere, Minnie Rancatori and Miss Irene Millet.

At the first installation ceremonies the degree team of Court Golden Gate of San Francisco, was in charge of the ritualistic work with Mrs. Emma Ebertz, District Deputy, installing the ten officers and six trustees. The Rev. James P. Donohoe was appointed the Court's first chaplain, and with the enthusiasm of the charter members and Father Donohoe's kindly advice in its infancy, the Court grew from babyhood through the meager years of the depression into a full fledged court aptly holding its own in leadership among the courts in this section of the state.

It has the distinction in that one of its members, Mrs. Milton Weckerle, held the high office of State Regent after a number of years in other various state offices.

Throughout these thirty years countless acts of charity have been undertaken by Court St. Mary. Uppermost in the minds of these Catholic Daughters are the many phases of charitable projects that are always at their attention — supporting a priest brother in the Trinity Missions, clothing the needy, Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets, cheering the aged, civic duties, teaching catechism classes, welfare agency duties and donations, furnishing First Communion outfits, various fields of mission work, church work, and on down the line in countless ways. This past term, a Processional Cross and Acolyte candlesticks, an Alb and baptismal set were given to the home parish of the Court—Our Lady of Perpetual Help. Weekly visits are made to the Little Sisters of the Poor and the Alemany Senior Center by the Social Welfare cairman, Mrs. Louise Barnard. These are but a few of the various acts of Court St. Mary in the vast fields of the Catholic Daughters program.

A social evening away from the business and meeting session is a welcome diversion and a good turnout is anticipated for the Court's anniversary.

Dean J. Weibel Weds Kindergarten Teacher; Honeymoon At Carmel

St. Mark's Lutheran Church of San Francisco was the setting for a recent ceremony at which Donna Mae Welch was wed to Dean J. Weibel of Daly City.

Given in marriage by her father, Marvin C. Welch of Dawson, Minnesota, Donna wore a waltz length gown of ivory lace over satin. Her three-tier finger tip veil was held in place with a pearled crown, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

Her maid of honor was her sister, Miss Carol Welch (of Dawson), and her bridesmaids were Miss Delores Larson of San Francisco, sister of the groom, and Miss Carol Weibel of Colma. Their dresses were teal blue satin with matching shoes and head bands. Each carried bouquets of blue and white carnations.

The flower girl was little Miss Bobbie Welch, niece of the bride. Her dress complimented those of the bridesmaids. She carried a basket of white carnations.

Donna's parents and sister came from the family home in Minnesota for the ceremony.

Dean's brother, Dale, was the best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. H. Z. (Ted) Weibel of 1712 Louvaine drive, Colma. Mr. Weibel is principal of Daniel Webster Elementary School.

The attendants to the groom were Terry Walter, college fraternity brother of the groom and Robert Welch of Belmont, brother of the bride.

The Rev. Dorn performed the double ring ceremony, after which a reception was held at the Presidio Officers Club. Dean is a former Navy officer, and a graduate of University of Southern California.

The couple spent their honeymoon in Carmel.

They are at home at 118 Belcrest avenue, Westlake Terrace section of Daly City.

The new Mrs. Weibel is a kindergarten teacher at Lakeshore Elementary School in San Mateo. Dean is an associate of the Art Colvin Realty Company of Daly City.

WITH CONDUIT

YOUR ELECTRICIAN BUILDS UNSEEN SAFETY INTO YOUR HOME

When your home is completed or your remodelling finished, the conduit installed by the electrician isn't seen. But the knowledge that it is there, invisibly on guard, is one of the greatest reassurances you can have.

This perfectly grounded, foolproof system of encasing wiring in metal pipes is required by law in apartment houses and public buildings, is optional for residences.

Increasing numbers of home owners are insisting upon conduit for their wiring. Tell your architect or contractor to specify conduit to build in safety for your home.

Indian, Ram Gridders Have Similar Target —The First Division?

The battle for first string slots was fierce this week as Daly City's two prep football teams — Jeff and Westmoor — drilled for their practice openers on September 30.

Coach Joe McGrath's Indians will travel to meet usually strong Menlo-Atherton of the South Peninsula League the same afternoon Coach Pete Matisi's Rams engage a mature Woodside eleven down south.

The Daly City teams last year finished in the Peninsula League basement, posting only one victory each. Westmoor defeated Jeff and Jeff's lone win was against South San Francisco, the traditional toughie.

By paperweight comparison alone (for what it's worth), the Rams from southern Westlake may be stronger than their home town rivals. Matisi has a good passer-leader in Quarterback Steve Funai and two solid if small runners in Tom Dake and Walt Prouty. The Westmoor line will have to prove itself, however, if the club is to finally leave the loop's also ran list.

McGrath's running game hinges on the combat strength of three jayvee products and mainstay Sal Blas. Up front the Indians are anchored by center Joe Bollentini and defender Gino Bertolini, two lads who like the rough going.

Jeff's tentative backfield is an all-junior foursome of Bob Miller, Dennis Namanney, Sam Ennon and Bob Kasper.

Westmoor has fair balance with Funai expected to throw much to experienced ends Ron Petrocchi and Chris Hanson while Dake and Prouty rank among the best packers in the league.

Jeff appears to have the tougher early schedule of the two Daly City squads. The Indians open league warfare against defending champ Hillsdale, then take on always tough Capuchino there and contender Mills here.

Westmoor opens league action against "loaded" San Mateo, but then the Rams face Burlingame and South San Francisco—two teams who are more on Westmoor's level.

But who knows?

Callan Points To Tax Cuts In Re-election Bid

Supervisor Thomas J. Callan Sr., two-term member of the county board, today opened his bid for re-election on November 8 by reminding tax-conscious voters that the basic county tax rate has been cut two years in a row.

"Last year," Callan stated, "the board of supervisors reduced the county tax rate four cents over the previous year—this year we reduced it an additional six cents over last year. A total tax cut of 10 cents per $100 assessed valuation in two years."

Callan, who is serving his third one-year term as chairman of the board of supervisors, pointed out that county residents should realize that the supervisors control only about 20 per cent of the total amount of the annual county tax bill.

He said that he was astounded by some of the information contained in mailings sent to county residents in the recent primary election.

The veteran supervisor said he was proud of the tax-reduction record he and the members of the present board of supervisors have established in recent years and that it will be his purpose to see that additional tax-savings to county residents be made in the future.

Despite the heavy turnout in the bantam and junior divisions there is still room for bowlers in the Senior Boys 740 Handicap and the Girls Junior 480 Fours Handicap. In addition to the Saturday leagues, a tentative Sunday Mixed Fours for Seniors and Juniors is on tap. There are openings in this league.

Felled Carlmont Youth Aided By Crusade Agency

"It doesn't pay to be a good sport." That's what Terry Eichorn would have told you a year ago. Terry gave everything he had for Carlmont High in San Carlos. Then suddenly he collapsed—couldn't even wiggle his toes.

Nobody knew it, but 17-year-old Terry had arthritis. The pains started when he was 12. Terry was a good sport, though, wouldn't give in until he had to.

It didn't look as if Terry ever would walk again. And he just gave up — stayed in bed for months. Then, someone steered his parents to a United Crusade-supported arthritis clinic at Mills Hospital.

First, the doctors put Terry on crutches. Then they began special exercises and slowly convinced Terry to try again. Now, he walks almost normally, drives a car and is a busy, hopeful young man . . . thanks to the Northern California Chapter of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, which serves all the United Crusade counties.
